

Agata Wnukiewicz-Kozłowska, PhD

Head of Interdisciplinary Medical Law and Bioethics Research Centre at the Faculty of Law, Administration and Economics, University of Wrocław;

Director of Post-diploma studies – Medical law and bioethics at the Faculty of Law, Administration and Economics, University of Wrocław

Lecturer for law, biology and biotechnology students at the University of Wrocław;

Lecturer for Erasmus students: International Human Rights Law, International Biomedical Law – lectures at the University of Wrocław and the University of Munich;

Lecturer of Law and ethics in medicine, Medical law in cases, Bioethics as optional subjects for students of law;

Lecturer for physicians at the Lower Silesian and Upper Silesian Medical Chamber;

Tutor of Law Students' Club of Biomedical Law;

Lecturer on international and national medical, bioethical and legal conferences;

Member of the European Health Law Association and the International Law Association;

Member of the Bioethical Appeal Commission